On the bow, there are two trampolines that make excellent spots for sunbathers to listen to the ambient sounds of the water underneath, while taking in the scenery.

The flybridge is accessed via the main deck cockpit via a staircase. As well as offering elevated views of the surroundings, there is a forward helm station a row of sunpads on the starboard aft and a C-shaped seating area along the stern, shaded by a hardtop cover and complete with table for alfresco dining.
